

Clamp Curfew On Two Cyprus Towns

Place 76,000 Residents on House Arrest

Stern Measures Reprisal Against Bombing, Stoning

NICOSIA, Cyprus (U.P.) — British authorities today clamped a 24-hour curfew on the towns of Limassol and Kato Zodia. The action placed their 76,000 inhabitants under virtual house arrest.

Under such a curfew housewives may venture forth only for a few minutes at the noon hour to buy groceries.

In Nicosia, police rounded up 60 persons including 10 women for questioning on recent murders in the capital city.

The stern measures were ordered in reprisal for bomb throwing and stone hurling incidents against the British army now engaged in tracking down the murder of a British police sergeant.

Limassol, one of the major ports of Cyprus, has a population of some 75,421. Kato Zodia is a village of 1,700 in an agricultural district 20 miles west of Nicosia. Both have been the scene of recent anti-British outrages.

The British authorities took similar action Thursday against the 18,000 residents of Larnaca, a port city 23 miles southeast of Nicosia. The 24-hour curfew there was lifted today.

Town a "Powder Keg"

The curfew at Larnaca was imposed to prevent Cypriot retaliation for the killing of a 7-year-old Cypriot. The town was described as a "powder keg," its pent-up indignation ready to explode for the shooting of the boy on Wednesday. Residents could leave their homes only once a day for food and water.

In Nicosia itself British paratroopers patrolled the center of the city for the third straight day in expectation of new outbreaks against British arrest and deportation of Archbishop Makarios, leader of the Cypriot union-with-Greece movement.

A house-to-house search for arms also was carried out today in Larnaca for hidden arms and ammunition that might be used with lifting of the curfew.

None except members of the family was allowed to attend the youngster's funeral Thursday. The British feared it would burst into a violent demonstration.

The boy was shot by a British soldier who fired into a group of youths that were stoning his truck.

Youthful gangs have become nearly as great a problem to the British here as adult Cypriot extremists.

Cypriot shopowners reported to police today that bands of boys have used personal and telephoned intimidation and threats to prolong the general strike throughout the island despite a plea by the Pan-Cypriot Trade Union Federation to end it.

British Church Officials Hit Exile of Cyprus Archbishop

LONDON (U.P.) — The Church of England brought pressure on Prime Minister Anthony Eden today to return Cypriot leader Archbishop Makarios from exile.

The first suggestion came Thursday from Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, the archbishop of Canterbury, who told the House of Lords that Makarios should be returned to Cyprus for the good of the island and Britain.

Dr. Fisher, most powerful religious figure in England, was backed in his plea today by the "Church of England Newspaper" which said the deportation of Makarios "only raised heavier storms than ever" on the Mediterranean trouble spot. The archbishop said "all the orthodox churches regard this event with indignation as an act of sacrilege, persecution and barbarism."

He said he had received many telegrams of protest against the deportation order.

Submits 3-Part Plan

Dr. Fisher was supported by Dr. George Bell, the bishop of Chichester, who called the deportation a "blunder" that would appear internationally to lack an adequate moral basis.

The archbishop submitted a three-point plan for solution of the Cyprus problem and the government was reported to have it under consideration. Dr. Fisher proposed:

1. Britain should appoint a competent person or persons to draft a constitution along lines agreed to by Makarios and British negotiators in the past. This would be on the basis of renewed bargaining.

U. S. Speeds Plans for UN Action To Prevent War in Middle East

WASHINGTON (U.P.) — The United States today hurried plans for United Nations action to prevent a drift toward war in the Middle East.

High administration officials said the U. N. action was being favored by the United States despite reported opposition to such a move at this time by U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld.

Officials said no final decision had been made on the kind of U. N. action the United States and its allies would recommend. But the

Jones Discusses Area Recreation With Stratton

State Senator Glen O. Jones this week conferred at length with Gov. William G. Stratton on development of recreational facilities in southeastern Illinois and received a favorable reaction from the governor.

Sen. Jones talked with the governor on the possibility of giving definite promotion to the Illinois state parks and other recreational and historic areas of this part of the state, with the view in mind of assisting the economy of the region through the presence of more tourists.

Gov. Stratton said he would instruct his Department of Conservation to work on the idea of developing the area as an attraction. Sen. Jones said he hoped for more specific information in a few weeks.

United States was reported favoring these moves by the security council:

1. A blunt warning to both Israel and the Arabs against provoking new incidents or taking action that could start a large-scale war.

2. A promise of tough U. N. action to punish an aggressor. Military, economic, diplomatic sanctions might be invoked.

A thorough review of U. S. Middle Eastern policies, including fresh study of Israel's arms request, was slated to be speeded up by the return to Washington today of Assistant Secretary of State George V. Allen.

Allen, who is in charge of Middle Eastern affairs, has been touring Asia with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. He left Dulles in Ceylon to return home for top policy work. Dulles will return next Wednesday.

Officials studying secret dispatches from the Middle East were downcast over prospects of keeping peace in the area. New Arab-Israeli incidents, military preparations by both sides, and "a dangerous rise in emotions" have led to the open pessimism.

Death Takes Mrs. J. E. Crabb, 49; Funeral Sunday

Mrs. Helen Cozart Crabb, 49, wife of J. E. Crabb, died yesterday afternoon at her home, 105 East Woolcott. Death was due to a sudden heart attack. She had been suffering from a heart condition for the past two years.

Mr. Crabb was home at the noon hour with her when he returned from work at 4 p. m. found her dead on the basement floor. An attending physician stated that she had been dead for several hours.

Mrs. Crabb was born in Saline county April 1, 1906, the daughter of James and Margaret Powell Cozart. She and Mr. Crabb were married in 1925 and she had lived in this community all of her life.

Besides her husband she leaves two twin sons: Carol Dean and Darrel Gene, both of Harrisburg; one granddaughter, Carol Jo Crabb; two sisters, Mrs. Carl Evans, Eldorado, and Mrs. Kathryn Parrish, Denver, Colo., and one brother, James Cozart, of Harrisburg.

She was a member of the Egyptian White Shrine and the First Methodist church.

The body will lie in state in the chapel of the Harrisburg funeral home. Due to repairs at the Methodist church the funeral will be held at 1 p. m. at the McKinley Avenue Baptist church where both sons are members. Rev. W. L. Cummins will officiate assisted by Rev. J. D. McCarty, and burial will be in the Lindale Memorial Gardens.

Ike Receives Shamrocks From 'Auld Sod'

Irish Premier Makes Presentation in White House Ceremony

WASHINGTON (U.P.) — President Eisenhower, a very honorary member of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, got his sprig of shamrock today—fresh from the auld sod.

John A. Costello, prime minister of Ireland, made the presentation in a brief White House ceremony. And Mr. Eisenhower, who admits he is proud to be a Friendly Son, beamed with pleasure.

"I'm leaving for the farm this morning and I'm going to take these up to Mrs. Eisenhower," he said. "She'll be very pleased."

Costello is the first Irish premier to visit the United States.

The jovial statesman brought a bunch of shamrocks straight from Dungarvan, a Waterford County, Ireland. He presented them to the President in a 169-year-old Irish silver bowl inscribed "March 17, 1956." And he fastened a sprig on Mr. Eisenhower's lapel.

Has Urgent Business

"Thank you very much," the President said and handed Costello a white package tied with green ribbon. Inside was a silver-framed autographed picture of the President. Mr. Eisenhower said he had planned to present Costello with some Steuben glass but that it was not ready yet.

Costello took the spirit of St. Patrick to the White House a day early because he has urgent matters to attend to Saturday on the holiday itself. Matters he can hardly afford to ignore—like being in New York to review the traditional St. Patrick's day parade and, later, addressing the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick after their traditional banquet in Philadelphia.

After properly imbibing President Eisenhower with the spirit of the day, Costello again took up the busy schedule that has marked his three-day Washington visit. Highlights of his activities today included lunch with Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the acceptance of an honorary degree from Catholic University and an address at Georgetown University.

Stevenson and Kefauver Near Open Quarrel

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (U.P.) — Adlai E. Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver quarreled today over Stevenson's powerful Minnesota primary backers.

It was the closest the two Democratic presidential candidates have come to attacking each other instead of the Republicans. And it was coupled with a sweeping blast against Eisenhower administration "hucksterism" from Stevenson and charges that the President is dodging decisions from Kefauver.

Stevenson, his voice crackling from the strain of the campaign, warned Kefauver at Eveleth and Grand Rapids Thursday night that he is risking a party split by attacking the Illinoisan's top Minnesota backers, Sen. Hubert Humphrey and Gov. Orville Freeman.

Stevenson scolded "my distinguished and respected friend" for his broad hints that Humphrey and Freeman jumped on the Stevenson bandwagon because of "ambitions outside the boundaries of the state."

Kefauver sought to avoid a personal clash with Stevenson in a speech at Duluth.

He did not take back his statements about Freeman and Humphrey, but he promised "no word of criticism of Mr. Stevenson will come from my lips. I fought hard for him in 1952 and I would do the same in 1956 if he gets the nomination."

Kefauver accused Mr. Eisenhower of standing aside in North Africa and the Middle East "just as he is standing aside in one of the crucial issues at home—that of solving differences between the races with charity and justice for all."

Airman Killed, Two Others, Girl Hurt Near New Harmony

NEW HARMONY, Ind. (U.P.) — Slushy pavement was blamed for an accident today which killed a serviceman and injured two others and a teen-age girl.

Indiana State Police identified the dead man as Donald Williams, 22. They said he was stationed at Camp Hill. The injured, riding in the same car were William Maxey, 22, and Austen Bennett, 21. They and Sally Martin, 19, New Harmony, driver of the other car, were taken to Deaconess Hospital in Evansville.

Police said the accident occurred near New Harmony on Ind. 68.

Reject Gov't Claim for Salary Paid to Marshal

SPRINGFIELD (U.P.) — The federal government will appeal a court decision rejecting its claim for $11,500 in salary paid to former U. S. Marshal Robert Grant.

U. S. Dist. Atty. John B. Stoddard Jr. said Thursday Solicitor General Simon Sobushoff has directed the government, on Stoddard's recommendation, to appeal the case in the Circuit Court of Appeals in Chicago.

The federal District Court here threw out the claim against Grant for salary paid from June, 1950, through February, 1952.

The government had charged Grant did not perform his duties while he was accompanying the late confidence man, Robert L. Knetzer, on western trips to turn up "hidden assets."

Grant, of Pekin, did not answer the suit or file briefs in the case. But the Fidelity and Deposit Co. of Maryland, which furnished Grant's bond of office, contested the claim.

Knetzer was the late Edwardsville auto dealer who became known as the "Ponzi of the Cornfields" for collecting millions of dollars in deposits from eager automobile buyers after World War II. He went bankrupt when it was learned he was obtaining cars for sale at losing prices.

Knetzer was jailed for contempt of court for failing to produce $250,000 in allegedly hidden assets. He was released for a time in Grant's custody to find the money.

U. S. Judge Charles G. Briggie, who threw out the case here, acted on the legal theory that the government cannot collect on a government official's salary once it is paid as long as the official continues to hold office.

Heartbroken Couple Returns Home Without Son Missing Since Oct. 31

EAST MEADOW, N. Y. (U.P.) — A young, heartbroken couple begins a melancholy trip to their home in Iowa today with no more than a theory about what has happened to their missing 3-year-old son.

Gerlad Damman, 26, belatedly received his discharge from the Air Force Thursday as an airman first class, reluctantly convinced that there is no more reason for him to stay here and help in the search for his son, Stephen.

The anemic, blond boy disappeared last Oct. 31 while his mother Marilyn, 22, was buying a loaf of bread in a supermarket. Police believe he was kidnapped but have been unable to find a tangible clue to his fate.

The Dammans and their daughter, Pamela, 1, planned to leave by automobile for Damman's home in Newton, Iowa, where his father farms.

The departure had been delayed because the couple refused to believe their son would not return. Damman was originally scheduled for discharge last December but obtained an extension in the hope some trace of his son would turn up.

"It's just like leaving part of yourself behind," Mrs. Damman said.

Damman has been stationed at Mitchell Air Force Base near East Meadow and the couple has been living in an apartment.

Mrs. Damman told police she had wanted to buy only a loaf of bread the day "Stevie disappeared" and left both children in a baby carriage in front of the supermarket. There was a long line in front of the checking counter and it was about 15 minutes before she could pay for the bread and leave.

When she returned to the front of the store, the carriage and her two children were gone. In desperation she raced home in the slim hope that perhaps the boy had gotten out and pushed the carriage and baby to the apartment house.

Banks to Close at Noon Good Friday

This action was decided at a meeting last night of the Saline County Bankers' association, held at the Harrisburg National bank.

Snow Storm Races Eastward

By United Press

A fast-moving snow storm raced across Illinois and Indiana into the east today. A special Weather Bureau bulletin warned of two to six inches of snow in central and northern Ohio by nightfall.

Forecasters also predicted rain changing to sleet and snow and slicking highways in parts of northern Kentucky and extreme southern Ohio.

In Illinois and Indiana, the Weather Bureau said, from one to four inches of snow will probably change to sleet.

The new snow storm moved rapidly out of the west, spreading snow across parts of Kansas and Missouri before crossing the Mississippi River. It was centered in Tennessee and moving northeastward with growing strength early today.

To the south, rain hit the Virginias and Carolinas, Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, and all the Gulf states except Texas and Florida.

Alabama and Georgia weathered the worst drenchings, with rain-falls measured up to two inches. Temperatures were still near zero in parts of Wisconsin and upper Michigan, even though spring is officially only four days away.

Eldorado Youth Is Sentenced To Penitentiary

William Roberts, 18-year-old Eldorado youth, today was sentenced to a term of not less than one and not more than three years in the penitentiary.

Sentence was pronounced by Circuit Judge C. Ross Reynolds after Roberts admitted the allegations in a petition to revoke his probation.

Roberts was placed on probation for three years last September after he pleaded guilty to an indictment charging burglary and larceny.

Then in January he was charged with stealing copper wire from the Illinois Power Co. substation at Eldorado and State's Attorney Robert V. Wilson filed a petition to revoke his probation.

When arraigned before Reynolds accompanied by his attorney, Joe M. Butler, Roberts admitted he had taken part in the theft. Then Judge Reynolds said he would have to sentence him on the burglary and larceny indictment upon which he was given probation last September. He said the term could be from one year to life imprisonment.

Upon the recommendation of the state's attorney, sentence was fixed at not less than one and not more than three years.

Prospects Slim For Final Vote On Bill This Week

Senate Leader Johnson Rules Out Saturday Session

WASHINGTON (U.P.) — The Senate backed out of its farm bill today a provision that would have guaranteed a minimum acreage to small cotton farmers. The vote was 46-43.

The action came amid prospects that the Senate would not complete action on the bill this week. The amendment to eliminate the minimum cotton acreage provision was backed by leaders of both parties and senators from states which would have lost acreage under the plan.

Senators from the old cotton belt said small cotton farmers are being squeezed off the land by acreage allotments so small that they cannot make a living.

Senators indicated they would call up for action about 20 of the remaining 60-odd amendments offered to the legislation. Each could be debated for one hour.

Floor Fights Promised

This outlook made it improbable that the Senate could reach a final vote tonight. Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson ruled out a Saturday session because many senators have St. Patrick's Day engagements elsewhere.

The Senate started debate on the bill 23 days ago and had acted upon virtually all major controversies involved. But some senators insisted upon making last-minute speeches on their pet proposals, if only for the record.

And some of the amendments promised to stir up additional floor fights. These included proposals to make participation in the proposed $1,200,000,000 soil bank mandatory, to knock out a provision that would guarantee small cotton farmers a minimum acreage to plant to the crop and to eliminate a provision that would increase dairy price supports.

Keep Long Hours

Leaders held the Senate into session for 12 hours Thursday, until 11:07 p. m., and called it back at the unusually early hour of 10 a. m. today in a push for a final vote.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson promised "to make every effort possible" to finish the measure today. And Senate GOP Leader William F. Knowland said "we should be able to finish it" today.

As it now stands, the much-debated legislation would provide for the administration-backed soil bank, continuance of the dual parity formula, two-price systems for rice and wheat, an increase in the corn acreage and a freeze on cotton acreage. In effect, the bill also would continue administration-backed flexible price supports.

First Major Defeat

The administration suffered its first major setback on the farm bill Thursday when the Senate voted 45-44 to continue the dual parity formula for figuring price supports. The provision would mean high government price guarantees for the five basic crops.

The vote came on amendment by Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt.) who wanted to figure price supports on a so-called "modern" parity formula.

Retention of the dual plan would mean an increase of 13 cents per bushel in the support price for wheat, a 9-cent increase for corn; about $2 a bale for cotton, and seven-tenths of a cent a pound for peanuts.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honor the person of the mighty, but in righteousness shall thou judge thy neighbor. — Lev. 19:15.
It is said by a great teacher of Law that a jury will decide against a rich man giving no consideration to either the law nor the evidence. This violates God's law.

Democrats Undaunted

Editorial By Bruce Bissat
Seasoned Democratic leaders surely have long since discounted the prospect that President Eisenhower would not run for a second term. But now plans heretofore tentative can be given firm shape as they gird for a hard campaign.
They are in somewhat the same position occupied by the Republicans during Franklin D. Roosevelt's heyday. It is almost always tough to beat an incumbent, and especially so when he is enormously popular.

But no Democratic presidential candidate has said anything to indicate he will shrink from such a test.

Nor has the Democratic party shown any public sign that it thinks of losing.

In recent weeks some analysts have hinted that once the Democrats knew Mr. Eisenhower was in the race, they would tend to choose a "sacrificial lamb." Under this theory, such a candidate as Adlai Stevenson would be held off until 1960, when victory prospects might be brighter.

Yet the fact is that most politicians, of whatever party, don't think like that. Privately they may have grave misgivings about their chances of winning a race, but they never throw in the sponge. In the first place, events beyond the control of any party may sharply alter the outlook in a short space of time. War, depression, deep civil strife, these are the most striking of the developments which could quickly shift the balance.

Secondly, there is no reason anyway to accept as final a tentative verdict conveyed by chancy public opinion polls eight months before the voting. Campaigners never forget how misleading were the signs that Harry S. Truman was marked for defeat in 1948.

Thirdly, the stakes in a presidential contest are extremely high no matter how viewed. It is not just that the White House with its great power is at issue. Their own political skins are involved.

A weak chief candidate running poorly can cost a party governorships by the dozen, House and Senate seats, and innumerable other state and local offices. It is against a politician's nature thus to tempt the fates.

His natural predisposition is to seek out the strongest presidential prospects.

If the odds are against him, he knows they can change and he wants his party to be ready. If they don't change, he still wants his party to run a good race, to protect himself and keep together its foundations at the state and local levels.

By the same token, no candidate can safely turn his back on the party. The party does not like that sort of response. The candidate who says "no" may never be asked again.

The Democrats know they have a scrap on their hands. But no one who knows politics imagines that they will give anything but their fullest energies to the task of beating Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Let's Keep Them Flying

Safety in the nation's military air arm is becoming a matter of deepening concern. The catalogue of crashes is shocking.

Already well publicized is the mid-air collision problem, which of course, faces commercial aviation as well. But recent events have led Air Force men to voice fear that our military aircraft are not being adequately maintained.

Since early January there have been seven major accidents in which 28 airmen were killed. Seven different plane types were involved, so it is hardly fair to suggest that defects in a given type are responsible.

Investigations are going forward. If the officers are right who believe shortages of men and money for maintenance are the root cause, then Congress has its work clearly outlined. No economizing that produces such results can be justified.

DREW PEARSON Says: British Seek Author Of Communist Code Letter From Louisville, Ky.; Nixon Family Wins Labor Election At Whittier, Calif.; More Newspapers Suppressed In Latin America.

WASHINGTON — The British secret service has launched an urgent investigation of the entire British embassy staff in Cairo in an effort to track down a Russian agent believed to have been collaborating with one of the two British spies, Donald MacLean, who's now behind the Iron Curtain.

The investigation came about as the result of a coded letter from Louisville, Ky., that slipped out of a book in the embassy library. The incident is taken so seriously that American intelligence agents have been brought into the case.

What happened was that the British librarian, a girl, and an American visitor in Cairo discovered the strange letter in a copy of one of Lord Cromer's books. The letter fell out when the book was opened for checking some reference material late last November.

The letter, sent from Louisville, was dated June, 1951, and is believed to have been placed in the book by an agent to be picked up from the book by another agent. The letter read in part:

"As I am writing, the news of Donald's disappearance is coming over the air. He must be given a longer breakdown period in the future. . . . ten days is a long time to howl. . . . Donald is very cautious about David's replacement chap and hasn't decided what he is like. . . . Am sending over for those two who understand Runyonesque a lot about guys and dolls. . . . Ever hear about a British consular man named Tyrrell? . . . I bought two shirts and some towels off him in a Cincinnati store."

American agents believe the letter was a coded message between two Communist agents reporting on MacLean. They also believe there have been serious leaks in the British embassy.

Every book in the library has now been pulled down and searched to see if any more letters can be found. The FBI has been involved in the check, and efforts have been made to locate the person who mailed the letter from Louisville. This, however, is like looking for a needle in a haystack.

NIXON LABOR TROUBLES

The Nixon family won the battle, but may have lost the war, as far as union organization of the Nixon family drive-in, market, bakery, etc., are concerned.

The vice president's family recently have been experiencing labor problems in their now rather ramified collection of restaurants, markets, etc., at Whittier, Calif. This has now grown from a country store where the elder Nixon worked with the vice president's brother, Don, to be quite an establishment employing 164 people.

As a result, various AFL-CIO unions have been trying to organize the place, including the Butchers, Bakers, Retail Clerks, and the Joint Board of Restaurant Employees. However, the Nixons claim a company union, "The Independent Employees of Southern California," with headquarters listed at the Nixon establishment at Whittier.

Finally, an election was held last week to decide the labor fate of the Nixon coffee shop, bakery, locker plant, drive-in, restaurant, and market. Though the company union meetings had been poorly attended—usually about 10 or 12—a total of 82 turned out to vote for the company union. The AFL-CIO turned out 45.

This may be good for the Nixon family, but the long-run political results may not be so good for the Nixon boy who lives in Washington.

STINGIEST SENATOR???

Delightful Sen. Theodore Francis Green of Rhode Island is the oldest man in Congress, one of the wealthiest, also has the reputation of being one of the stingiest. The latter isn't true, but results from the fact that Green walks to work or sometimes takes the street car. Actually, he walks because he likes the exercise.

Anyway, the reputation for stinginess is abroad, whether deserved or undeserved, and his young colleague from Massachusetts, Sen. Jack Kennedy, isn't doing much to improve it. Kennedy is jokingly telling how Green, an ardent Democrat, got out of a taxi in front of the Senate office building after telling the taxi driver what a great man Eisenhower was.

"We've got to re-elect the Republicans," said ardent Democrat Green, taking the exact change—no tip—out of his purse. "Remember, vote for Eisenhower."

The taxi driver glowered and drove off cursing the Republicans.

LATIN PRESS CENSORSHIP

Some of the American editorial writers who staged a crusade over suppression of La Prensa in Argentina have been quiet over a much worse situation in Colombia where newspaper after newspaper has been closed by Colombian President Gustavo Rojas Pinilla.

Meanwhile, Dr. Alberto Lleras, former secretary general of the Pan American Union in Washington, has given a real challenge to President Rojas by publishing a series of articles criticizing abuses of the nation's tax money and charging that the president took a 250,000-peso advance on his salary. Dr. Lleras was immediately shot at five times at the Country Club, but so far has survived.

Meanwhile, the reason for the resignation of another courageous Colombian, Dr. Eduardo Zuleta Angel, ex-Colombian ambassador in Washington, has become clear.

Two hundred prominent ladies in Bogota endeavored to call on President Rojas at the presidential palace to protest the suppression of civil liberties. They were stopped before they got to the palace and drenched with fire hoses. Among the ladies was the mother of Ambassador Zuleta.

He didn't like having his mother drenched by the man he served in Washington, and resigned.

Prince Rainier Leaves for Monaco To Make Arrangements for Wedding

NEW YORK (UP) — Prince Rainier III left today for Monaco. He said he is "so happy I have to pinch myself" over his forthcoming marriage to actress Grace Kelly.
The 32-year-old prince held a news conference in his two-room suite aboard the liner Ile de France before it sailed for Paris. He said the major arrangements for the April 19 wedding in Monte Carlo are completed, but he is returning to take care of "many small details."

More than 100 bobby soxers boarded the ship and crowded the corridor to the prince's suite to catch a glimpse of him before he sailed. Their comments ranged from "He's dreamy" to "Wow!" The prince was asked if, as the elaborate preparations continued, he sometimes wished he and Miss Kelly could just run off and get married. He smiled.

By Robert Dieffenbacher, D. D.
Written for NEA Service

Habits can be changed, but any change requires some effort on our part. If you generally take 40 minutes to dress in the morning, you will find it difficult to dress in 20 minutes without some extra effort or some new motivation. You can so easily revert to the old schedule.

At the beginning of Lent, you said to yourself, and possibly to God, that you were going to set aside some regular time for worship. For several days you followed the new worship schedule, but somehow a few human emergencies arose, and you did not find time to pray.

It is time to begin thinking about Palm Sunday. The churches will be crowded with "occasional worshippers" who think they must go to church two or three times a year to pay their homage to God.

Do we go to church to make peace with our Creator or to keep peace in our own souls? Do we go to church to show off or to be shown the way of life? It is possible we might find these humiliating thoughts sufficiently motivating to change our habits and keep the peace of our own souls through daily prayer.

Junior High Trumpet Receives Honors in Scholastic Press Contest

The Trumpet, Harrisburg Junior high school publication, received honors in the Columbia (New York) Scholastic Press association's 32nd annual contest.

The Trumpet, according to a United Press story from New York City today, received a third place award.

Other southern Illinois winners: The Echo, Central Junior High school, West Frankfort, a second place award; the Monitor, Carbondale Commercial High school, a third place award.

"Yes," he admitted. "And as it goes on, I wish it more and more."
Will Return Often
The prince was presented with a leather bound book of New York City photographs by Richard Patterson, the city's official greeter, on behalf of Mayor Robert Wagner. The inscription stated the book was "a slight remembrance of your unforgettable visit."
The United States had "more than" lived up to his expectations, the prince said. He added that he was sure he and Miss Kelly would return often.

Father Francis Tucker, the American chaplain who is a member of the prince's palace staff, said he was just as happy as the prince after the engagement which was announced after he arrived here Dec. 16.

"I am especially happy that the doubting Thomases are now convinced I was right," the beaming Father Tucker said. "When we arrived there were many who thought I was over-selling the prince, but now that they have met him they agree he is a wonderful fellow."

Canada Approves Arms Shipments For Israel Gov't

OTTAWA (AP) — Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent announced today the government had approved arms applications for Israel.
The shipments are 1,754 units of 5-pounder ammunition, 40 units of electronic equipment, costing 1,200, for converting the current radio sets, and $16,361 worth of spare parts for Sherman tanks.
St. Laurent said that in accordance with the government's policy of giving consideration to all applications for arms shipments the cabinet Thursday "approved three such applications for Israel."
"These applications were considered in the light of tensions now existing in the Middle East, as I said before the cabinet, and it was felt that though the basic tensions remain, there has been in the last few days some easing of the apprehensions that existed when Sir John Glubb was removed from control of the Arab Legion," he said.

Widow Loses Heart, $16,000 To 'Nice' Man

CHICAGO (AP) — A petite widow said Thursday she stopped to ask directions from a nice man and lost her heart and $16,000 to him. Dorothy Williams, 35, of suburban Wheaton told her story while swearing out a confidence game warrant against Harry G. Vogt, 51-year-old co-owner of a Fort Lauderdale, Fla., tavern.

She was house-hunting in 1953, she said, and got lost. Vogt pulled up alongside her, and her troubles began when she asked him directions.

The obliging Vogt not only steered her to a nice house, but accepted $36,000 to handle the purchase, she said.

He put $20,000 down on the house and—since they had decided to get married by this time—held $16,000 for safekeeping.

"Then I found out he was already married and I told him I wanted my money back," Mrs. Williams said. Instead, she charged, he gave her "a note for $8,000 on a Java coffee mill" and left town.

Boy, 4, Drowns In Backwater

ELKHART, Ind. (AP)—David Simmons, 4, drowned in a backwater of the St. Joseph River Thursday in nearly the same spot where a 2-year-old girl drowned five days earlier.

David was found dead in about two feet of water near his trailer home just west of here.

The body of Marsha Brooks, who lives in the same trailer park, was found last Saturday in the same area.

Authorities believed the Simmons boy tripped and fell into the water while walking in the swampy area.

Texas City Disaster Scenes Featured In Billy Graham Film Here March 18

Exclusive full-color scenes of the Texas City disaster of 1947 highlight the climax scenes of "Oiltown, U. S. A.," film release of Billy Graham Evangelistic Films to be shown here on March 18 at the First Baptist church.

The Texas City footage was filmed by a free-lance newsreel photographer in Houston, Texas at the time of the disaster more than seven years ago. No use was made of the film until Director Dick Ross began to search for authentic scenes to highlight the story of "Oiltown, U. S. A." He located the film, unused and in storage, and made arrangements to incorporate it into the moving story of the Billy Graham picture.

The story centers around the life of a Houston oil millionaire who is brought to an abrupt realization of his need of a religious experience through danger to his daughter's life in the Texas City holocaust.

Featured in the film are Colleen Townsend Evans, Paul Power, Robert Clarke, Georgia Lee, Ralph Hoopes and the stars of Graham's earlier film, "Mr. Texas," Redd Harper and Cindy Walker.

Evangelist Graham and his team are portrayed in their evangelist crusade in Houston. Parts of the picture were filmed in Rice Stadium where 60,000 persons gathered for one of American Evangelism's largest throngs.

There will be two showings of the film at the First Baptist church. The first will be at 7 p. m. and the second at 8:45. The second showing is especially for the members of other churches. They will be able to attend their own services first and have plenty of time to see the second show.

There will be a free-will offering but no admission charge.

TAKES OFF LIKE YOU'RE WEARING SPURS

Come try it — and you're in BUICK'S THRILL-A-MINUTE CLUB

THE THRILLS begin in the first sixty seconds — and from then on they come in clusters.

Right off, you feel the stepped-up getaway in Buick's new Variable Pitch Dynaflo® — a blazing new take-off, even before you switch the pitch.

Because now — right in the topmost inch of pedal travel — right where you do most of your driving — right in the fuel-saving economy range — you're moving with a solid new "take-hold" getaway that's brisk and blessedly smooth.

Then you double the thrill.

For when you want to pass — or climb — or get out of a tight spot fast — you floor the pedal and switch the pitch. That brings you an absolutely smooth burst of full-power go-ahead on the split second — and it's the nearest thing to soaring flight yet.

It's a double-barreled package of excitement — and it's teamed with the most powerful V8 engine in Buick history — a 322-cubic-inch engine with no less than 9.5 to 1 compression in every CENTURY, SUPER and ROADMASTER.

All that would seem like thrill enough — but you'll find you've hardly scratched the surface.

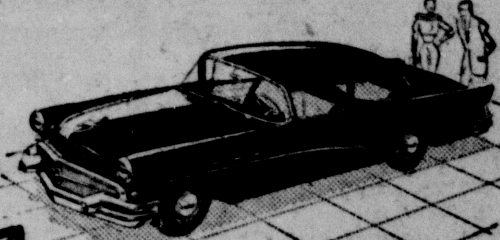

You'll find yourself glowing all over from the sweet and level buoyancy of Buick's great new ride.

You'll feel a serene satisfaction from the way this trim beauty handles and corners and tracks to the road with the truest sense of direction yet.

And certainly you'll have to feel the good feeling that's yours just from bossing this big and brawny and beautifully sculptured automobile that's like a thing alive, and impeccably obedient.

We'd like you to know and feel all this first-hand — just by trying out a new Buick. That's all you do to join Buick's Thrill-A-Minute Club. Why not become a member in good sitting today? And when you do, we have some big-thrill news on prices, too.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century — optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

XXIX

My own gun slipped from my inside pocket quickly and easily, as slickly as any shoulder holster draw, and I leveled it at the sheriff and said, "Don't."

His hand hung suspended, his thin old fingers dangling empty, and his mouth fell open revealing the yellow rotund look of his lower teeth. Behind him by the car the deputy stood rooted, frozen with the impact of the gun in my hand. "Don't move, Horace," I said gently. "It'll be better that way."

Horace said something, but it was just a stuttering sound, and his eyes pleaded with the sheriff for guidance. But the sheriff was watching me fiercely, like a vicious old lion cornered at last, and his eyes still glowed red in the twilight. I wagged the gun at Horace. "Come around here, stand beside the sheriff. Snap it up."

He obeyed briskly. The sheriff didn't look at him, but continued to fix me with his fierce outraged stare. I moved to them, jerked the gun from the sheriff's holster and slapped Horace's hips. He was innocent of weapons. I stepped back. "Sit down, both of you, and take it easy."

They sank slowly to the grass. Horace's eyes still implored the sheriff for guidance, for comfort, but Abner Cornwallis was too busy glaring hate at me.

I was a trifle weary of Sheriff Abner Cornwallis, and as I put his gun in my coat pocket I turned and spoke to Dr. Van Horn. "I'm sorry for this interruption, Doctor. Won't you please continue?"

He hesitated, his keen gaze swinging from me to the sheriff and Horace. Behind him Dr. Martingale was grinning, apparently enjoying the situation. Van Horn spoke in his deep voice. "We may as well proceed, since we have started." He called over his shoulder to Dr. Martingale. "Go ahead, Jerry. Make the preliminary incisions." He turned to me. "Bennett, are you certain we're in the clear? I don't want any legal complications for the medical section."

Fire Inspection Shows State Hospital Hazards

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Monthly fire inspection reports at state welfare hospitals disclose numerous hazards which should be corrected, a department official reported today.

But with limited funds for administration of 16 hospitals plus various schools and service centers, "we have to evaluate their seriousness" and do what we can to keep the situation under control," he said. The official declined to permit use of his name.

February fire inspection reports indicated five ward buildings with fire escapes in poor repair at Chicago State Hospital. The report indicated additional fire exits were needed in a number of buildings, and suggested replacement of 2 1/2 inch fire mains with larger ones.

Reports from most of the state hospitals indicated hazards in need of correction. At Galesburg State Research Hospital the fire truck was in need of repairs, and sprinkler systems were not in operation in some buildings.

At Elgin State Hospital the reports indicated that fire alarms in some buildings were not yet in operation. At Manteno State Hospital the reports said water pressure would not be sufficient in the event of four simultaneous alarms.

Fire inspections are made monthly. Each hospital is equipped with fire equipment, a small full-time fire crew, plus volunteer firemen from other hospitals.

Fire losses at state hospitals totaled about $5,000 in 1953-54, and $6,000 in 1954-55. Two buildings struck by lightning at Chicago State Hospital and East Moline State Hospital were destroyed in the latter period.

Bursts of Solar Energy Cause Blackout Of Communications

BOSTON (AP)—Explosive bursts of solar energy were expected today to cause more radio communication blackouts through most of the world.

Scientists at the Air Force's Cambridge Research Center said that bursts of energy from the sun's surface Thursday caused one of the longest communication blackouts since 1939.

Short wave transmission was blocked for more than a half hour during the sun flare up. Scientists said it was similar to a flare up which drew world attention Feb. 10.

Scientists believe that during such flares hot gases from the interior of the sun are projected outward at incredible speeds. The gases affect radio reception.

Illinois Election Judges Will Not Count Write-In Votes for Nixon

CHICAGO (AP)—Election judges won't count write-in votes for Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the April 10 Illinois presidential preference primary.

Sidney T. Holzman, chairman of the Chicago Election Board, said the Illinois primary ballot doesn't list candidates for vice president as it does in New Hampshire.

About 22,000 New Hampshire residents wrote in Nixon's name in the state's primary last Tuesday. Holzman said many voters have asked how they could vote for Nixon in the Illinois primary.

For the past several years, I have served as Senatorial Committeeman from Saline county. Each county names a committeeman to serve on the District committee to determine the number of Representative nominees, and to fill vacancies in event of emergencies. I have always attempted to work for the best interest of the Democratic party.

Under the new legislative reapportionment, committeemen are elected as before, but are called Representative committeemen. I am a candidate for that office. It pays nothing, except the honor and the chance to be of service to the party. I will appreciate your vote for Representative committeeman at the April 10 primary.

West Frankfort 'Cinderella Team' And Big, Fast Dunbar are Big Question Marks at State Finals

EDWARDSVILLE WINS
The Edwarsville Tigers romped to an easy 68-44 win over Quincy today in the first game of the state quarter-finals at Champaign. The Tigers jumped to a 14-8 lead at the end of the first quarter and led 28-16 at the half. They will meet the winner of the Peoria Central-Oak Park game in the semifinals.

CHAMPAIGN — Most of the questions at the opening of the quarter-finals of the Illinois high school basketball tournament today concerned the "Cinderella" West Frankfort team and the big, fast Chicago Dunbar entry.

It was conceded Edwarsville and Quincy would open the tournament with well-matched ball clubs, that Peoria Central was favored over the fast but small Oak Park Huskies and that Rockford West was the favorite.

But upset-minded fans hoped to see something from West Frankfort's Redbirds, still flushed from their upset win over Pinckneyville Tuesday night, but rated a 10-20 point underdog against champion Rockford West.

Rockford West players and Coach Alex Saudergas were convinced the worst was behind them after their 66-64 double overtime victory

Announce Schedule Of Eight National Grid Games on TV

NEW YORK (UP) — The 1956 schedule for national telecasting of college football games was announced today by the NCAA and the National Broadcasting Co., which will carry the games on seven Saturdays and Thanksgiving Day.

In addition to these dates, the NCAA program for controlled gridiron TV calls for regional telecasts of different games on five Saturdays. The schedule for these shows will be determined on the local level.

On each of the seven Saturdays covered in today's announcement, the same game will be screened in every part of the country. On Thanksgiving Day, one game will be telecast in the East and another in the West.

The schedule:
Sept. 22 — Georgia Tech - Kentucky.

Oct. 6 — Texas Christian-Arkansas.

Oct. 27 — Oklahoma-Notre Dame.

Nov. 10 — One of the five Big Ten games scheduled this day, the game to be picked later.

Nov. 22 (Thanksgiving Day) — East: Penn-Cornell; West: Oregon-Oregon State.

Nov. 24 — UCLA-Southern California.

Dec. 1 — Army-Navy.

Dec. 8 — Pittsburgh-Miami, Fla.

Snapshots of State Finals

CHAMPAIGN — Snapshots from the "Sweet Sixteen" scene: The 1956 quarter-finals include only two 1955 Sweet Sixteen survivors, champion Rockford West and Quincy. Quincy last year reached the same point, losing to Pinckneyville in the quarter-finals. It was West's fifth Sweet Sixteen entrant and Quincy's 14th.

Chicago Dunbar has an 80-point-per-game scoring average for 29 games, but even if the Mighty Men continue that pace into the finals they won't reach the 32-point game total of Du Sable's great 1954 club. Du Sable got 2,646 points that season. Dunbar has scored 2,323 in 29 games.

The high schools in the state tournament finals will also compete in the "Miss Sweet Sixteen" competition, each one nominating a girl for the honor. "Miss Sweet Sixteen" will be picked Friday night and crowned in Huff Gym Saturday.

Oak Park will be the shortest team in this year's tournament, with Rockford West and Chicago Dunbar having the tallest clubs. The giants will be John Wessels and Nolden Gentry of Rockford West, and Dave Moran of Rantoul, all 6-7.

Jim Polk and Steve van Winkle of Peoria Central were childhood polo victims and Van Winkle's breathing is still somewhat affected by the affliction.

Joe Lucco, coach of the Edwarsville Tigers, is known in his hometown as "the fashion plate." State tournament fans will have to judge for themselves whether he deserves the title.

Rantoul Coach Carlos van Auren has told newsmen he's satisfied to have his team the underdog—"as long as we keep winning." Rantoul was ranked last in its sectional and Taylorville was picked to beat the Eagles in the super-sectional. The Eagles will be underdogs again tonight against Dunbar.

Pettit Crowned Double Champ In Pro League

NEW YORK — Big Bob Pettit of the St. Louis Hawks today was officially crowned a double champion in the National Basketball Assn. — in scoring and rebounding.

Final official figures for the regular NBA season disclosed that Pettit cruised home a comfortable winner in his battle with Paul Arizin of the Philadelphia Warriors for the scoring crown. The 6-9 former Louisiana State star in his second year as a pro, ripped 176 points through the hoop in his last five games to finish with a total of 1,849 points.

Arizin, who made it close until the final week, was more than 100 points behind with 1,741. And Neil Johnston of the Warriors, scoring champion for the last three seasons, wound up a distant third with 1,547.

Completing the top five in scoring were Clyde Lovellette of Minneapolis with 1,526 and Adolph Schayes of Syracuse with 1,472. On a basis of average points per game, the "big five" ranked the same with game, followed by Arizin with 24.2, Johnston with 22.1, Lovellette with 21.5, and Schayes with 20.4.

Pettit captured the rebound championship with a record total of 1,164 to 1,094 for rookie Maurice Stokes of Rochester. However, Stokes played five less games and had a slightly better average per game — 16.3 rebounds to Pettit's 16.1.

Luis Martinez of Mexico Will Be an Attraction on Lions' Wrestling Program

One of the wrestlers in the Australian tag match, a feature of the wrestling program to be staged in Harrisburg Saturday, March 24, is Luis Martinez.

Referred to as "Mr. Mexico," Martinez is called the best wrestling attraction to come out of Mexico in years. The 204-pound heavyweight is from Mexico City.

Martinez is 32 years of age and 5 feet 7 1/2 inches tall. He is a former university athlete who starred in many sports at the University of Guadalajara in Mexico. His five years as a professional wrestler has seen him campaign thru-out the United States, Mexico and Canada.

He now calls Texas his home, but Martinez frequently returns to his native land to wrestle because Mexican promoters are feverishly seeking his services.

Luis has spent much time wrestling in the western states such as Texas, Oklahoma and Arizona. He is known throughout the Pacific coast states because of his box office ability and his colorful style.

He is a veteran of three years' service in the U. S. Army and served overseas in France.

Luis believes in the modern style of wrestling that affords action every second that a wrestler is in the ring and declares he is in such great physical condition that he can go at a fast pace for an entire sixty minutes if a match lasts that long.

Martinez will team with Seymour Koenig of New York City in the tag match, facing Rudy Kay and Zack Malkov of Chicago.

The feature bout has Bill Melby vs. Hans Schmidt and in the co-feature Rose Roman meets Ada Ashe.

The wrestling program will be staged at Davenport gym Saturday, March 24, starting at 8:15 p. m. The Harrisburg Lions club is sponsoring the program.

Ringside and reserve seat tickets at $2.50 and $2 are on sale at the Webster Pharmacy. General admission tickets are $1.50 and may be purchased at Woolworth's.

Nats Win Berth In Pro Playoffs

By United Press
A brilliant five-point burst in the final 80 seconds of the play-off game carried the Syracuse Nationals into a berth in the National Basketball Assn. playoffs today and a date to meet the Boston Celtics in Boston Saturday.

The Nationals broke out of a 77-77 tie to whip the New York Knickerbockers, 82-77, Thursday in Syracuse. The two teams had finished in a tie for third place in the Eastern Division, the last play-off berth.

Syracuse will meet the second-place Celtics in a best-of-three semi-final play-off series, with the winner qualifying to meet the eastern champion Philadelphia Warriors.

There will be another special play-off game tonight at St. Louis, between the St. Louis Hawks and Minneapolis Lakers. At stake is second place in the Western Division, but both are in the playoffs regardless of the outcome.

Milwaukee Braves See No Repeat by Dodgers, Winners of One Exhibition Tim

By United Press
The Milwaukee Braves were convinced today there'll be no repeat of the runaway staged by the world champion Brooklyn Dodgers in 1955.

After a week of exhibition play, the Braves have run up a 5-1 record while the world champions have managed to win only one of six games. What's more, the Braves have won two of three games with the Dodgers themselves.

A brand new left-handed banjo would have been required to make Manager Charley Grimm happier Thursday as the Braves scored a 6-2 victory over the Dodgers before a record crowd of 4,380 at Bradenton, Fla. Three of his key pitchers—Bob Buhl, Gene Conley and Warren Spahn—limited the Dodgers to four hits, including a two-run homer by rookie Charley Neal.

The Dodgers' early spring gait was of equal interest to freshman Manager Bill Rigney, whose New York Giants are making a joke of the Painted Desert league race in Arizona. The Giants reeled off their fifth victory in six games Thursday when they beat the Chicago Cubs, 5-1, behind the five-hit pitching of Al Worthington, Johnny McCall and Hoyt Wilhelm.

Two other pitchers — Brooks Lawrence and Vernon Law—gave the Cincinnati Redlegs and Pittsburgh Pirates something to cheer about.

Lawrence, a 15-game winner in 1954 who fell off to 3-8 last season, yielded only two runs in seven innings although the Redlegs suffered a 4-3, 10-inning loss to the Boston Red Sox. Law, who had a 10-10 record with the last-place Pirates in 1955, turned in four scoreless frames and gained credit for a 4-3 triumph over the Washington Senators on the strength of Dale Long's three-run homer.

Elsewhere:
Bill Skowron homered and drove in three runs as the New York Yankees beat the Detroit Tigers, 6-2, and now is regarded as the American league champions' regular first-baseman.

Al Smith and Hoot Evers homered and Rudy Regalado banged out three hits to lead the Cleveland Indians to a 12-6 victory that extended the Baltimore Orioles' losing streak to six games.

Stratton Continues Feud with Stevenson; Paschen Hits Velo Action by Governor

CHICAGO — Illinois Gov. William Stratton kept up his running feud with his predecessor, Adlai E. Stevenson, Thursday night.
The Republican governor told a party gathering that Stevenson had failed to deny Stratton's charges that cigar tax and horsemeat scandals, plus prison riots, featured Stevenson's administration as governor.
Stratton made the charges last week in New York, adding that Stevenson is one of the weakest of the current Democratic presidential candidates. Stevenson called the charges "hysterical" and said Stratton was striving for a role as GOP hatchet man.
In his speech last night, Stratton said "We can talk about facts—and this will be a campaign of facts vs. fiction."
He charged that Stevenson had retorted with charges that Stratton's record includes failures in administration of highways, welfare, and education.
Stevenson "must have known," Stratton said, that state aid to schools has gone from a minimum of $160 to $200 per pupil, that the Galesburg State Hospital has won the American Psychiatric Association's top award, and that nearly 300 million dollars in road building has been completed.
"My predecessor had no plan to solve the tremendous traffic congestion," Stratton said. "We are getting toll highways to serve an area of six million people without a tax increase."
At Galesburg, one of the men who wants to challenge Stratton in the November election, Herbert C. Paschen, Democratic organization candidate for governor, said Stratton had vetoed a bill which would have banned sale of many lewd and horror magazines.
Paschen told Knox county Democrats such a bill should be passed by the next session of the Legislature. He said the state administration must give attention to the problem of juvenile delinquency and the factors involved in it.
Morris B. Sachs, who is opposing Paschen for the Democratic nomination for governor, was campaigning in Chicago. Saturday night Sachs will speak at an Irish fellowship banquet there.
Another St. Patrick's Day Democratic speaker will be former National Party Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell, who will speak at Springfield.
Democratic State Chairman James A. Ronan announced that Stevenson, a candidate for president, will attend a congressional district rally at Decatur March 22.

Shuman Warns Wheat Plan Will Hurt Farmers

CHICAGO — Charles B. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, warned today that "domestic dumping" with disastrous effects for farmers would result from the Senate's two-price wheat program.
"The Senate action constitutes a grave threat to the income of all farmers who depend on feed grain and livestock for their livelihood," Shuman said.
"The real objective of the certificate plan is to dump the wheat surplus into the domestic feed market," he continued.
"This plan has been presented as a two-price plan designed to meet competition in the foreign market," he said, "while at the same time supporting prices in the domestic food market."
"Actually, the Senate plan is a 'three-price plan,'" Shuman said. "It provides one price for wheat consumed as food in the United States, a second price for foreign sales, and a third price—potentially the most significant price to U. S. farmers—for wheat consumed as livestock feed in this country."

The program as approved by the Senate is designed to give wheat growers 100 per cent of parity price support for whatever they sell for human consumption in the United States. The rest of the wheat crop would be sold as livestock feed or for export at whatever price it would bring on the open market.

Elevator Stalls In New State Office Building
SPRINGFIELD — An elevator in the new state office building stalled between floors for 12 minutes Thursday while filled with women employees.
Two of the women became nauseated because of nervousness during the time the elevator was stalled and in darkness.
James M. Walsh, custodian of state buildings, said cause of the elevator failure was not immediately determined. He also confirmed there has been some difficulty in operation of the new elevators, and that some minor mishaps have occurred previously.
But Walsh said the Long Elevator Co., Springfield, which installed the elevators, has a full-time maintenance man on duty in the building and is in the process of "adjusting" the elevators.

Nickell Urges Schools Emphasize Written Exams

SPRINGFIELD — Superintendent of Public Instruction Vernon L. Nickell Thursday suggested Illinois schools place more emphasis on written examinations as opposed to the fill-in-the-blank variety.
Nickell suggested that more emphasis be placed on writing and English composition in the teaching of all subjects.
In a letter to all Illinois school administrators, Nickell noted recent criticism about pupil deficiencies in English grammar and suggested that a particularly in English should be established as to what level of work a student should master in each grade.
He also suggested a review period at the beginning of each school year to re-orient the pupil in his English work, and that all teachers cooperate in stressing the importance of grammar and composition, not just English teachers.
"We learn to write correctly through experience," Nickell said. "Pupils learn little about good writing from filling in the blanks," he said.

West German Senate Approves Rearmament Bills

BERLIN — West Germany's senate, meeting here for the first time in history, voted final approval today of two key bills clearing the way for West German rearmament.
The Bundesrat unanimously approved 14 constitutional amendments necessary for rearmament. In a second vote, the upper house accepted a committee recommendation against changes in the "soldiers' bill," automatically making it law.
The two votes gave Chancellor Konrad Adenauer full legal authority to mobilize the 500,000-man army which is to be the core of West German self-defense.
Adenauer hopes to have 96,000 men under arms by the end of the year, including the 6,000 volunteers recruited under earlier legislation.

Boy Kept Home From Woodcraft Meeting Kills Self

EAST LOS ANGELES, Calif. — Guy William Hamilton, 9, couldn't go to a woodcraft ranger's meeting until he finished his spelling lesson.
"You go study your spelling," his mother, Mrs. Martha Louise Young told her son. "If you learn your lesson, I'll let you go to the meeting."
Guy went to the living room, his mother continued ironing in the kitchen. Then she heard what she thought was a "jet blast" of a plane flying overhead. She went to the living room.
Guy lay on the floor. She thought he was playing until she saw a bleeding wound in his head. Her husband's "unloaded" deer rifle was under the body. The boy had put the muzzle of the gun in his mouth and pulled the trigger with his toe.
"I was going to let him go to the meeting," she told sheriff's deputies.

The Press, Fellow Legislators, The People Endorse Paul Powell's Record

"Outstanding Legislator"
At the close of the 1951 and the 1955 sessions of the Illinois Legislature, the members of the Press—representatives of major press associations and newspapers from Chicago, Springfield and other large areas—voted Paul Powell the "Outstanding Legislator of Illinois."
This was the free action of the newspapermen—Republicans and Democrats alike. It was unsolicited, and could not be influenced except through outstanding performance as a legislator by the one chosen to receive it.
It is another bit of evidence that the people of this district may be proud of Paul Powell as their Representative.

Candidate for Democratic Nomination and Re-election
FOR REPRESENTATIVE
59th Representative Dist.
(Hamilton, Williamson, Saline, Gallatin, Johnson, Hardin, Pope and Massac counties).

Urged to Run for United States Senate--

Prior to the closing of the 69th session of the Illinois General Assembly in 1955, a petition was presented to Rep. Paul Powell, signed by 67 out of 73 Democratic legislators (Powell excepted) asking that he become a candidate for U. S. Senator from Illinois.
The petition stated among other things that Powell "possesses the qualities, judgment and political astuteness required by a Senator, coupled with a grim determination to represent the people of the great State of Illinois. That 'he is a person with a kindly disposition, and one of the few yet remaining great Americans.'"

Here are some ADDITIONAL COMMENTS regarding Paul Powell as a potential candidate for Senator, and personal comments regarding the esteem with which he is held by the Press and the Public:

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST
(From A Series of Articles in 1953 by John Bartlow Martin)
Now Paul Powell, a good-looking man with rough, uneven features, has been over the years one of the most powerful men in the House. He achieved power with little education and through sheer native ability, proof that in this body of mediocre men an able one stands out. He comes from Egypt, a hilly, wildly beautiful region in Southern Illinois. In 1930 he was elected mayor of Vienna. In 1934 he borrowed some money and ran successfully for the Legislature. He has been re-elected ever since. Already county chairman and downstate director of the Democratic Party, in 1948, when the Democrats controlled the House, Powell served as Speaker.
On the floor he is one of the most effective speakers in the House, considered one of the few who during debate can actually change votes.

A MERCHANT
Congratulations on your being picked by the newsmen and other men who should know as the finest legislator in Springfield. I think so too, even if I do not always agree with measures that you are for. That is the American way of life and God grant that it should always be.
Harry H. Humma, (Druggist, Metropolis, Ill.)

A MANUFACTURER
"According to the news, some of your friends want you to run for United States Senator. I am sure you would make a good U. S. Senator, and I certainly would support you, but I really believe you could do a greater service, both to yourself and your constituency were you to remain in the legislature.
"We have not always agreed upon different issues, but all in all, you are doing a wonderful job. I would certainly hate to see you replaced by someone who would not do nearly as admirably a job."
Russell H. Pemberton
Elder Manufacturing Co.
McLeansboro, Ill.

ILLINOIS STATE JOURNAL
June 1, 1955
(Column by J. Emil Smith, Republican editor): Probably the most listened to speaker on the floor of the House of Representatives is Paul Powell, Democrat, of Vienna. Members cut their hands so they won't miss a "Powellism."

CHAMPAIGN NEWS-GAZETTE
(Republican—February 16, 1956)
The assured return of Rep. Paul Powell to Springfield is good for the state. He is a rough-and-tumble political fighter when necessary but, when the chips are down, he votes his convictions for the welfare of the state rather than partisan advantage.
This (Champaign) district's four legislators of both parties would be the first to testify that there is no more able member of the House than Paul Powell, whether he's with them or against them on a particular issue.

A SUPREME JUDGE
To be rated top man by the newspaper correspondents who follow the work of the Legislature day in and day out is a very great honor—and one which you richly deserve. Good work, Paul.
Justice Walter V. Schaeffer
Illinois Supreme Court

SECRETARY OF STATE
"Your selection again by the Legislative Press group as the outstanding member of the House in this session is a fine honor and one which you richly deserve. I am happy that this honor has come to you and your district may well be proud. Your work has been outstanding and I want to add my personal appreciation of the fine services you have rendered these many years.
Charles F. Carpenter
Secretary of State of Illinois

A LABOR LEADER
I have followed with enthusiastic interest news stories concerning yourself and the possibility of your being available to not only the people of the State of Illinois but to the people of the whole of the United States by being the Democratic candidate for United States Senator in 1956.
Such an honor is well deserved. Based upon the many contributions you have made to good state government, I speak for many in saying your contribution to national and world affairs would be highly desired and is sorely needed now.
N. F. Snyder,
International Representative
Illinois State Barbers
And Beauticians Union

CHICAGO TRIBUNE
June 26, 1955
"Rep. Paul Powell, Democrat from Johnson county near the southern tip of Illinois, was voted the outstanding house member for the second time.
"Powell is just as much a leader without the title as he was when speaker of the house at the 1949 session. Certainly he is as much a leader as when he was elected spokesman for Democratic minorities in four general sessions.
"This year he has no title, by order of Cook county party brass hats. And still some go so far as to say he is 'leader of both sides of the house.'
"Powell can shout, but this has little to do with the fact that he is the best orator in the legislature. Whether he is loud or quiet, the members listen closely. He takes the floor often.
On offense or defense, Powell is powerful. When his humor plays on points, it comes naturally. When his grammar or pronunciation fall short of perfection, Powell loses nothing, because he makes no pretense. If he gestures, it is because he feels that way, not because he has been taught. His speeches rarely miss fire, because they are loaded with 'angles,' 'reasons,' that other members can use back home. He simplifies the complex at little expense to accuracy.
Powell is a politician in an area where politics is a live topic with nearly everyone 365 days a year.
High school was his top mark in education until he used the world—and particularly the legislature these 22 years—for a text book. No lawyer, he goes to the heart of laws.

ILLINOIS STATE REGISTER
(August 18, 1955)
We congratulate those Democrats who urged the nomination and election of Rep. Paul Powell of Vienna as United States Senator next year.
In an editorial June 27, we said in part:
"Foremost in leadership is a Democrat, Representative Paul Powell of Johnson county, whose voice has influenced more legislation than any other member on either side of the aisle in either House or Senate. Powell would make a formidable candidate for United States Senator next year."

DECATUR HERALD AND REVIEW
July 10, 1955
Representative Paul Powell, (Democrat-Vienna) was the most effective member of the House in the 1955 session.
